Law Library News

As Fall Break continues, we hope you're able to relax, catch up on work or connect with friends. The law library is seeking law student representatives for our Student Library and Technology Exchange, SLATE. If you want a voice in law school technology and library services, consider joining. Good luck with the rest of the semester. As finals approach, remember CALI Lessons and West Academic Study Aids to help prepare. Also, the Weinstein Fitness Center is often open from 6 a.m. until Midnight.

Welcome to Molly Lentz-Meyer

Molly Lentz-Meyer joins the library as the Digital and Archival Collections Librarian. She is from sunny California where she earned MAs in History and Library and Information Science as well as her J.D. She and her wife Margo are excited to get out and explore Richmond with their two dogs, Clyde and Alistair (their cat Marcel has to stay home). In addition to a wholly expected love of books, Molly loves to cook and is thrilled by both the number of farmer's markets the Richmond area has to offer and by all of the amazing restaurants there are to try. If you have a favorite local hike or bike ride, stop by and suggest it so she can keep eating brisket tacos guilt-free!
